

Thomas Dye & Sarah Lucy Pulliam

Thomas Dye was born November 1799 and died in Madisonville, Monroe Co, TN of Cancer of the Ear on in November 1884. Tom & Lucy are buried at Piney Grove Baptist Church Cemetery, Madisonville, Monroe Co, TN.

According to census data, Thomas and his brother, William were twins both born circa November 1799. This date was arrived at by looking clearly at the 1850 Census data, as well as, earlier census data. The 1850 Census of William in Monroe Co, TN and Thomas in Habersham Co, GA, clearly indicated they were the same age and the censuses were taken in Oct and Dec 1850.

William 50 in October and Thomas indicated he was 51 in December.

This meaning that, William's Census was taken before the November Birthday and Thomas's after the November birthday. Twins have long run in the Dye line. In 1850 William resided in Monroe Co, TN and this census was taken on Oct 23, 1850, William states he was 50 years old and his wife Sarah 47, this is the only Census he appears that gives his exact age.

Looking at Thomas in Habersham Co, GA, this census was taken Dec 13, 1850 and Thomas is 51 years old.

Thomas Dye was born in Chester Co, SC to Henry & Anna Dye. By early 1800, the family sold their land in Chester Co, SC and moved to Rutherford Co, NC along the Millstone Fork of the Sandy Run Creek. Tom was raised in Rutherford Co, NC. In 1808, his father, Henry Dye passed away.

His mother remarried to Casper Webber Sr. and he went to live in the Webber household.

Mr. Webber's children by his first wife were grown, and these children of Anna's were on the 1810 Census in the Casper Webber household. About 1817, Thomas married Sarah Lucille Pulliam, the daughter of Revolutionary War Veteran, Zachary Pulliam, and his wife, Sarah Black.

The Pulliams were natives of Virginia, but had resided in South Carolina at the time, Tom met Lucy.

Thomas appears in the Rutherford County Court of Pleas and Qtr Sessions in 1833 when his property, inherited from his Father, is sold at auction. The land is also owned by his youngest brother Gilbert. About 1840, Gilbert moved his family into Spartanburg Co, SC, and Anna Dye Webber resided with him, as her husband had died in 1818. To be near her ailing

Father, Tom & Lucy, bring the family to Habersham Co, GA in the mid-1830s and they remain there until after Zach Pulliams death and about 1852, Thomas moves the family to Monroe Co, TN. His twin brother, William and Williams wife Sarah, die and leave property and several young children who are split up in the family or quickly marry. Tom was known to be a Republican and against slavery.

There is a known letter of record from grandson, Jennis Dye. Much information is available regarding the Pulliam line.

The 1880 Monroe Co, TN Mortality Census indicates that Lucy Dye age 80 born NC parents born VA, VA, Housekeeper, Died in Oct 1880 of injuries on falling. She was walking in the creek and slipped and fell.
