

Vane Cameron Dye

Vane Cameron Dye
Son of Charles Cicero Dye & Nina Taylor Dye

Vane was born April 25th, 1916 in Dunklin Co, MO, near Holcomb.

He died January 19, 1945 in Belgium.

He is buried at Henri Chappelle National Cemetery in Leige, Belgium.

Van married Velma Esperman

Children include:

Ronald Lee Dye d. age of 2 months

Twins born May 10th, 1943

Larry Cameron Dye died April 19, 1994

buried at Morley Cemetery.

Vane was drafted into the Army in 1942.

He was assigned as Tank Driver and eventually was assigned to the 2nd Armored Division, Patton's 3rd Army.

Vane entered WWII at Normand Beach, France in 1944.

Vane was killed when his tank was struck by shell fire during the Battle of the Bulge in January, 1945.

Vane received the Silver Star & Purple Heart for his service

Information on this page submitted by Charles Brent Dye , In honor & remembrance of his brother, Vane.